The present arrangement , I can say from bitter experience, is simply infuriating and wastes the time both of the caller and the Collector's Office. On more than one occasion I have missed getting the Collector owing to this arrangement. May be sanctioned?

OFFICE OF THE RESIDENT IN MYSORE.
BANGALORE.
10 JUNE 1930
Regd. No. 6034
File No. 98/26

Office of the Collector,
Civil and Military Station, Bangalore.

Dated 6th June 1930.

FROM

G. H. Cooke, Esq., M.C., I.C.S., COLLECTOR, CIVIL AND MILITARY STATION,
BANGALORE,

To

The Secretary to the Resident in Mysore, Bangalore.

SIR,

Telephone connection - Collector & Dt. Magistrate's Office - Separate connection to Collector's chambers- Sanction requested.

In Proceedings No. 5446- dated 24-6-'26 of the Hon'ble the Resident, sanction was accorded for a telephone connection to the Collector & Dt. Magistrate's Office with extention to Collector's chambers. A switch has been fixed to the telephone call board in my office. When there is a call for me, the switch is pressed by one of the clerks in the office and the calls transferred to the phone on my table. The present arrangement whereby my telephone is on the same line as that to the office is most inconvenient. Calls for me do not come to me direct and are constantly delayed owing to the absence of anybody competent from the office phone.

I frequently attend office outside office hours, when there is nobody in my office to attend to and to switch the caller on to me. In addition I consider that it is most desirable that I should have an entirely separate line on which I may be able to speak without the feeling that I am being overheard. The recurring cost for a separate connection will be Rs.200/- per annum. The present cost for a switch to Collector's chambers is Rs.60/-. Hence the extra cost will be Rs.(200-60)= 140/-, which can be met can be met from this year's sanctioned allotment in the Bangalore budget estimates under the head "Account IV - other expenditure heads - E. General Administration - Other charges". I request that the Hon'ble the Resident will be pleased to sanction the above proposal.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

COLLECTOR & D. M.

FROM F. H. Sullivan, Esquire

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE,
CIVIL AND MILITARY STATION,
BANGALORE.

To

The Secretary to the Hon'ble
The Resident in Mysore, Bangalore.

SIR,

I have the honour to inform you that I have opened a separate Police Branch consisting of 2 Sub Inspectors, 1 Head constables and 5 constables for investigation of important House breaking and other cases and have designated it as "X" Department. Whole office is located upstairs in the public office buildings, Mayo Hall.

As I find it absolutely necessary that the Sub Inspectors and Staff working in this Department should be available to be on the phone, I request that the sanction of the Hon'ble the Resident may kindly be accorded to have an extension telephone fixed up in the room in which this staff work.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

COMMISSIONER OF POLICE.
